

Connecting New

March, 2018

This month I share a painting entitled "The Fruit of Union." The background represents a sky full of life. Notice that the branches of the bush are two different shades of green, symbolizing the two persons in love relationship. The fruits are given freely to the world (notice they are not attached to the branches).

I believe that this painting applies to any love relationship, between people, between a person and God or Jesus, between a person and the earth, etc. But even more, I believe that it applies to all of these relationships at once. We say that God is love, so this must be true. To feel it, to claim it and to endeavor to live into that reality is marvelous.

May we love more completely and may the fruit of that love transform the universe.

Peace and Blessings,
Clarence
