

Connecting New

October, 2016

With summer behind us, I offer a poem and painting depicting a favorite experience I shared with my beloved this summer. My hope is that you spend some time recalling one of your favorite summer memories (either recent or distant), and while you are there, notice how God was with you then, and is with you now.

Firefly Dancing

Firefly dancing on a May evening as though some of the stars have descended for a while to greet us surrounded with twinkling lights warmth and love resonates with our own warmth and love all these years past and all these years to come fireflies together this night and always my love
we are fireflies together

Peace and Blessings,
Clarence
